*OPENING WORDS

LEADER: O Lord, we are like those who dream, but we are not bound by any spell;

PEOPLE: We are not chasing a wild fantasy, but dwelling amidst our heart's desire.

LEADER: Yesterday, we lamented; today, we laugh.

PEOPLE: Yesterday, we moaned; today, we shout.

LEADER: Yesterday, we wept in grief; today, we weep in gratitude.

PEOPLE: Yesterday, we doubted you; today, you lead us home.

LEADER: Yesterday, our step was a drunken stagger; today, our path is straight in stride.

PEOPLE: Yesterday, we had met our end; today, we have begun again.

LEADER: O Lord, we are like those who dream: we have received our heart's desire.

ALL: For you have visited our despair, and we have embraced our joy. It is you whom we have sought; it is we whom you have found!
